

Benefits Handbook Date November 1, 2016

Tuition Assistance Program

Marsh & McLennan Companies

Tuition Assistance Program

Marsh & McLennan Companies recognizes that self-development through education can help you achieve your full career potential. In general, tuition assistance is available for courses or programs that are business-related or that will help you in your current position or your career path.

Taxes

This link will allow you to view IRS regulations regarding taxability of education benefits:

Internal Revenue Service publication on Employer-Assisted Education Programs:

www.irs.gov

Contact

Each of the Marsh & McLennan Companies has its own guidelines for tuition assistance eligibility.

For more information, contact your Human Resources Representative or your manager.