MMA Corporate, Insurance Alliance, MMA-NIA or the MMA Anchorage office	There is no waiting period if you are actively at work. Your eligibility date is the first day you are actively at work on or after your date of hire.

Family Eligibility

Once you enroll in the Legal Assistance Plan your eligible family members are automatically enrolled.

Your family members can use the Legal Assistance Plan. A family member is your:

- approved domestic partner
- child for whom you are the legal guardian
- child of an approved domestic partner
- legally adopted child
- biological child
- spouse
- stepchild.

For your child to be covered, your child must be:

- dependent on you for maintenance and support,
- unmarried, and
- under 19 years of age, or
- under 25 years of age if a full-time student in a college or other accredited institution (generally those with 12 or more accredited hours of course work per semester, or full-time as determined by the school) and not employed on a full-time basis.

The Company has the right to require documentation to verify dependency (such as a copy of the court order appointing legal guardianship). Company medical coverage does not cover foster children or other children living with you, including your grandchildren, unless you are their legal guardian with full financial responsibility—that is, you or your spouse claims them as a dependent on your annual tax return

My spouse/domestic partner and I both work for the Company; what coverage options do we have?

You can cover your spouse or domestic partner as a family member under your plan, or your spouse or domestic partner can elect separate employee coverage. You or your spouse or domestic partner can't be covered as both an employee and a family member under the Company's Legal Assistance Plan.

How long can I cover my child?

Generally, you can cover your child through the end of the calendar year in which your child reaches age 19. You may be able to extend coverage for your child up to the end of the month in which your child attains age 25, as long as your child is:

- a full-time student (generally those with 12 or more accredited hours of course work per semester, or full-time as determined by the school), unmarried, and dependent on you for support, or
- disabled.

Once your child reaches the maximum age for coverage or no longer meets the eligibility requirements (whichever comes first), your child's coverage will stop. If your child continues to be disabled over the limiting age, your child may still be eligible to continue coverage as discussed below.

You can cover your disabled child over the limiting age. To be eligible for coverage, your child has to be an unmarried child incapable of self support by reason of a total mental or physical disability.

Are additional services available to individuals not defined as eligible family members?

Yes. The Legal Assistance Plan offers optional personal legal services to the following individuals for an additional fee:

- Your parents
- Your stepparents
- Your parents-in-law
- Your approved domestic partner's parents or stepparents.

To learn more about these services, visit Hyatt's website at www.legalplans.com.

How the Plan Works

This Plan gives you and your family access to professional legal representation through a panel of network attorneys for issues ranging from consumer protection to family law to wills and estate planning. Or you may use an out-of network attorney and be reimbursed according to a set fee schedule.

The Plan is administered by Hyatt Legal Plans (Hyatt Legal is a MetLife Company).

Once you are enrolled in the Plan, you may:

- Visit the Hyatt website at www.legalplans.com

- Call Hyatt Legal Plans at +1 800 821 6400.

Visit the Hyatt website www.legalplans.com to find a conveniently located attorney by using a zip code, city or county search. You can also find attorneys based on the specific legal service you require. You can also obtain a case number on the website to give to the attorney.

If you call, a client service representative will give you the address and the telephone number of the plan attorney or attorneys located most conveniently to you, as well as a case number. Once you have this information, you may contact the plan attorney to schedule an appointment.

Or, if you prefer, you may use an out-of-network attorney and be reimbursed according to a set fee schedule.

To find out more information about Group Legal Plans and the services they offer visit the American Prepaid Legal Services Institute's (API) website.

The American Prepaid Legal Services Institute (API) is an American Bar Association organization. Hyatt Legal Plans is a member of the API and its executives are active participants.

You may continue the Legal Assistance Plan for up to 24 months, provided you pay the required contributions.

If I become disabled, does the Plan still provide a benefit?

Contact the Claims Administrator for details.

Your Legal Assistance Plan coverage ends when you die. Your spouse or approved domestic partner can elect to continue coverage for two years on an individual basis when your coverage ends. They must pay the full fee in advance of receiving any services. Refer to the Plan's "When Coverage Ends" on page 7 for more information.

If I No Longer Satisfy the Plan's Eligibility Requirements

Your Legal Assistance Plan coverage ends the day you no longer satisfy the Plan's eligibility requirements. You can convert your Legal Assistance Plan coverage to an individual plan within 30 months of your termination by contacting the Claims Administrator and making the required payment within 31 calendar days of your coverage end date. Any case that is open and pending when coverage ends will be covered to completion.

Coordination with Other Plans

How are other plans' benefits coordinated with benefits under this plan?

Benefits coordination is unnecessary for this Plan. The Legal Assistance Plan will provide services to a Marsh & McLennan Companies employee who elects the Legal Assistance Plan coverage regardless of whether your spouse or domestic partner has a plan through his or her employer, as long as an attorney-client relationship does not already exist for that particular legal matter.

How are plan benefits coordinated with the Employee Assistance Program?

The benefits under the Legal Assistance Plan and Employee Assistance Program are not coordinated.

The Employee Assistance Program offers you a referral to an attorney for a free 30-minute consultation by telephone.

The Legal Assistance Plan provides in-network attorneys for fully covered legal services for which you pay no attorney fees and provides reimbursement (up to the amount on the fee schedule) for out-of-network attorneys.

Covered Services

When you join, the Plan provides fully covered legal advice and assistance for:

- wills and estate planning: wills, codicils, trusts, living wills and powers of attorney

Keep in mind that use of these documents does not represent legal advice. For legal advice related to your specific circumstances and the laws of your state, you should consult with an attorney.

Reimbursements

If you use an in-network attorney, all attorney fees for covered services are paid in full. There are no deductibles or copayments, and no claim forms.

If you use an out-of-network attorney, you will be reimbursed according to a set fee schedule. You need to file a claim to receive benefits.

You can request an out-of-network fee reimbursement packet by calling Hyatt Legal Plans at +1 800 821 6400.

This service covers you in the defense of any incompetency action, including court hearings when there is a proceeding to find you incompetent. Incompetency hearings occur when someone goes to court to obtain an order declaring that another person is incompetent to handle or care for themselves or their property. An example of this is when an adult child asks that a participant be found incompetent. The participant would be covered to defend this action.

This service covers establishing a guardianship or conservatorship over a person and his or her estate when you are appointed guardian or conservator. It includes obtaining a guardianship or conservatorship, gathering any necessary medical evidence, preparing the paperwork and attending the hearing. This service does not include representation of the person over whom guardianship or conservatorship is sought, or any annual accountings once guardianship or conservatorship has been established. There are two common examples for guardianship. One is for a disabled relative who cannot handle his or her affairs; and the other is for a minor child who has property or is in the care and custody of a person who is not the child's parent.

SEPARATION OR DIVORCE

This benefit is available to the employee only, not to a spouse or other eligible family members. This service includes preparing and filing all necessary pleadings, motions and affidavits, and drafting settlement agreements as well as representation at the hearing or trial, regardless whether the employee is a plaintiff or a defendant. This benefit does not include disputes that arise after the issuance of a divorce decree or over such issues as visitation or custody.

Personal Injury

PERSONAL INJURY (25% NETWORK MAXIMUM)

Subject to applicable law and court rules, plan attorneys will handle personal injury matters (where you are the plaintiff) at a maximum fee of 25% of the gross award. It is your responsibility to pay this fee and all costs. If you are injured in a car and the injuries are as a result of another person's actions or negligence you may make a claim for money damages for your injury. Under the Plan an attorney will represent you in this case and charge a contingent fee of a maximum of 25%. If the attorney is successful the attorney will take a fee from the proceeds of the case. If the attorney is not successful there will be no fee. In either situation, you will be responsible for third-party costs such as fees, expert depositions, transcripts, and doctor bills.

This service covers you as a tenant for matters involving leases, security deposits or disputes with a residential landlord. The service includes eviction defense, up to and including trial. This service does not include the plan attorney's attendance or representation at the small claims trial, collection activities after a judgment or any services relating to post-judgment actions.

Traffic and Criminal Matters

JUVENILE COURT DEFENSE

This service covers the defense of your dependent child in any juvenile court matter, provided there is no conflict of interest with you, the employee, in which case this service provides an attorney for you only. There can be a conflict between an employee and juvenile if the employee is the cause of the child's problem. An example of this is truancy. A juvenile could be in court for failure to go to school but it could be the parent's fault. This leads to a conflict. The legal plan in this situation would cover the employee not the juvenile.

This service covers representation of the Participant in defense of any traffic ticket except driving under influence or vehicular homicide, including court hearings, negotiation with the prosecutor, trial and sentencing.

Representation includes court hearings, negotiation with the prosecutor, trial and sentencing. It does not include representation of a felony charge, which is more serious than a misdemeanor charge, which is subsequently reduced to a misdemeanor.

Wills and Estate Planning

LIVING TRUSTS

This service covers the preparation of a living trust. It does not include tax planning or services associated with funding the trust after it is created. A living trust or "inter vivos trust," is a method of managing your property before you die. A living trust can provide for someone else to manage your property should you wish them to. A living trust may speed the distribution of your property when you die and may keep the property from going through probate. This service, unlike probate, lets you keep private how you want your property distributed.

LIVING WILLS

This service covers the preparation of a living will. A living will is a legal document that instructs your family and doctors to use or not to use extraordinary life support procedures should you be unable to tell them yourself.

POWERS OF ATTORNEY

This service covers the preparation of any power of attorney when you are granting the power.

PROBATE AT 10% NETWORK DISCOUNT

Subject to applicable law and court rules, plan attorneys will handle probate matters at a fee 10% less than the plan attorney's normal fee. It is your responsibility to pay this reduced fee and all costs. When you die, legal procedures are required to administer your estate and transfer your property. Administration of your estate involves gathering your property, paying your legitimate debts, paying any death-related taxes and distributing the property according to the terms of your will or, if there is no will, according to the laws of inheritance in your state. One legal procedure to manage an estate is called probate.

WILLS AND CODICILS

This service covers the preparation of a will. The creation of any testamentary trust is covered. The benefit includes the preparation of codicils and will amendments. It does not include tax planning. A will is a legal document prepared and executed during one's life to provide instructions about the division of one's property upon death. A properly written will allows you to designate who will care for your minor children, who will inherit your property and who will handle your affairs after your death. For many people, a will is the most important document they will execute in their lifetime. The significance of a will depends less on the size of the estate than on the kinds of property left or on the matters to be taken care of upon death.

A codicil is a document that changes some parts in an existing will or adds new instructions to it. A codicil is prepared only if the desired change is minor. When a major change is to be made, a new will is prepared.
